

Kerouac y Ginsberg, los miembros mas celebres de la Generacion Beat, estuvieron unidos por una profunda amistad. Extraordinarias por su alcance, su calidad y su intimidad, sus cartas constituian un activo laboratorio en el que compartian y discutian sin cesar ideas en evolucion constante, se recomendaban libros, analizaban autores y movimientos literarios, intercambiaban poemas, comentaban los borradores de las nuevas obras... Quizas una de las ultimas grandes correspondencias a cuatro manos del siglo XX, revela no solo los procesos creativos de dos maestros, sino que es tambien el retrato incomparable de los dos escritores que encabezaron el movimiento cultural y artistico que definio a toda una generacion. / Kerouac and Ginsberg, the two most celebrated members of the Beat Generaron, shared a profound friendship. Extraordinary in their scope, quality and intimacy, their letters were an active laboratory in which they ceaselessly shared and discussed their ideas, they recommended eachother books, analysed authors and literary movements, exchanged poems, and commented on drafts of their new works. This great correspondence not only reveals the creative processes of these two authors, but also serves as an incomparable portrait of two writers who headed the cultural and artistic movement that defined an entire generation.
