

One big city girl. Two charming Montana men. How will Amy choose between them? After life in New York City, aspiring novelist Amy Hawkins finds that her new home in the little Montana town of Coldwater is going to take some adjustment. Her handsome new neighbor, Jake Winters, wants to help her feel at home and introduces her to Montana life. While she's attracted to this horse farmer's shy charm, her writing isn't going well, and her money is running out. Then Jake hires a beautiful horse trainer, and Amy's troubles are compounded. It seems she may have stumbled into a love triangle that will end in grief. And when a good-looking carpenter does some repairs on her home--and gives Amy a special gift--she finds herself pulled in a new direction. Two men want to win her heart. How will she decide?
