

Sometimes life throws us a devastating curveball, but we still end up with a homerun ending anyway... Paige Emerson has had a rough life. No doubt about it. Abandoned at a church as a baby by a drug-addicted teen mom, she was bounced around from place to place her whole life. When she finally makes her way to New York City and meets her dream man - Daniel - her life finally seems under control and on the right path. When a devastating tragedy happens that forces her to make some major life choices, she finds herself in the small beach town of January Cove, Georgia, and learns that love can often come in the form of second chances. And his name is Brett. Hot, sexy Southern cowboy. But love is never easy, and when life throws her an almost unimaginable curveball, she has to make the biggest decision of her life yet again. This is a January Cove series book, however it can be read as a standalone.
