

Everybody knows, in a general way, that the finest place in the world isâ€”or, alas, wasâ€”the Dutch borough of Vondervotteimittiss. Yet as it lies some distance from any of the main roads, being in a somewhat out-of-the-way situation, there are perhaps a few of my readers who have ever paid it a visit. For the benefit of those who have not, therefore, it will be only proper that I should enter into some account of it. And this is indeed the more necessary, as with the hope of enlisting public sympathy in behalf of the inhabitants, I design here to give a history of the calamitous events which have so lately occurred within its limits. No one who knows me will doubt that the duty thus self-imposed will be executed to the best of my ability, with all that rigid impartiality, all that cautious examination into facts, and diligent collation of authorities, which should ever distinguish him who aspires to the title of historian. Chacun sait dâ€™une maniere vague que le plus bel en-droit du monde est, â€” ou etait, hélas ! â€” le bourg hollandais de Vondervotteimittiss. Cependant, comme il est a quelque distance de toutes les grandes routes, dans une situation pour ainsi dire extraordinaire, il nâ€™a peut-etre quâ€™un petit nombre de mes lecteurs qui lui aient rendu visite. Pour lâ€™agrément de ceux qui nâ€™ont pu le faire, je juge donc a propos dâ€™entrer dans quelques details a son sujet. Et câ€™est en verite dâ€™autant plus necessaire que, si je me propose de donner un recit des evenements calamiteux qui ont fondu tout recemment sur son territoire, câ€™est avec lâ€™espoir de conquerir a ses habitants la sympathie publique. Aucun de ceux qui me connaissent ne doutera que le devoir que je mâ€™impose ne soit execute avec tout ce que jâ€™y peux mettre dâ€™habilete, avec cette impartialite rigoureuse, cette scrupuleuse verification des faits et cette laborieuse collation des autorites qui doivent toujours distinguer celui qui aspire au titre dâ€™historien.
